

Entries Being Accepted for Annual Congressional Arts Competition

Winning Artwork to be Displayed in U.S. Capitol

HUTCHINSON - Congressman Jerry Moran today announced that entries are being accepted for the 2007 Congressional Arts Competition. All high school students in the First Congressional District may enter their artwork.

"The Congressional Arts Competition provides an avenue for Kansas students to demonstrate their talents," Moran said. "The winning artwork is displayed in the U.S. Capitol Building and is seen by Members of Congress and people from all parts of the country and world. I look forward to seeing the students' entries this year."

The Hutchinson Arts Center will host the 2007 competition. All submissions must be delivered to the Hutchinson Arts Center by 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 10. Awards will be given in each category, and the winning artwork will be displayed in the U.S. Capitol for one year. The winning entry will be announced in a ceremony on Saturday, February 17 at 10:00 a.m. at the Hutchinson Arts Center, 405 North Washington Ave., in Hutchinson.

Interested students and teachers can contact the Hutchinson Arts Center at (620) 663-1081 for further information and guidelines regarding the competition.
